

We need less centralized corporate ownership of the media, not more. Weakened government restrictions will lead to more mergers and a few large companies will control what people read, watch and hear. Free Speech is guaranteed by the First Amendment and I would like the FCC to reconsider it's position on this important issue. I would also like public hearings to be held as soon as possible. Thank you.